IDOLATRY BETTER THAN NO RELIGION, SAYS BISHOP

Moore of Oregon Also Sees Chinaman Looming Up on Horizon as Coming Colossus.

Vinal Haven, Me., April 28.—At the East Maine Methodist conference, yesterday, Bishop Moore, in addressing the women's foreign missionary anniversary, said he knew of no country where the society is making greater progress than in Mexico, where, he said, Romanism is gaining much of the ground lost in the Mexican revolution. He said: "I do not want to destroy Romanism; but to see it transformed and using its matchless machinery for the saving of men and the glory of God."

In speaking of the eastern countries, he said that idolatry is better than no religion, and added: "Anything that causes a man to recognize and pray to some power outside of himself is better than no religion at all. The Chinaman is the coming Colossus. He looms on the horizon like a giant. We can no longer regard him as an animated pig-tail."

IS CHARGED WITH MURDER

Harvard Instructor Sought By Cambridge Police

ERICH MUENTER ACCUSED

Of Causing Woman's Death by Arsenic Poisoning — He Has Been Missing Since April 17th.

Boston, April 27.—The Cambridge police yesterday issued a warrant for the arrest of Erich Muentner, instructor in German at Harvard University, charging him with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Muentner died April 16. It was charged in the warrant that Muentner gave her arsenic, from the effects of which she died.

The Muentners lived at No. 107 Oxford street, North Cambridge, one of the most fashionable sections of the University City. Muentner and his wife came to Cambridge two years ago.

Medical Examiner Swan performed an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Muentner, reported that murder had been done. Circulars have been sent out by the Cambridge police.

Muentner took the body to Chicago for burial on April 17, the day after the woman died. He took his three children with him. The youngest of whom was born April 6.

Muentner is thirty-five years old, five feet nine or ten inches tall, weighs about 150 pounds, of florid complexion, has dark hair, a long face, wears a dark brown mustache and mustache, and has good teeth.

He graduated from the University of Chicago in 1899 and was instructor in German at the University in Kansas for a time after that. Two years ago he came to Harvard as instructor, also taking courses in the graduate school in German philology.

When Mrs. Muentner died, Dr. Fred W. Taylor and Dr. Robert McIntyre, of Cambridge were the attending physicians. The circumstances of her death were so peculiar as to cause the physicians to notify Medical Examiner Swan. Dr. Swan performed an autopsy on April 17. He reported to District Attorney George A. Sanderson and Chief of Police Frederick W. Pullen.

On April 17 Prof. Muentner accompanied by his three children left for Chicago with the body of his wife. Circulars have been sent to that and other cities by Chief Inspector Hurley requesting his arrest.

Arrested Last Night.

Cambridge, Mass., April 26.—The Cambridge police last night issued a warrant for the arrest of Erich Muentner, an instructor in German at the Harvard university, on a charge of murdering his wife in this city about two weeks ago.

CHICAGO TRACTION REHEARING?

Counsel for Companies Appeal to the Supreme Court.

Washington, April 28.—A petition for rehearing in the Chicago Traction cases was filed Thursday in the Supreme Court of the United States in behalf of the street car companies. The petitioners, who are counsel for the companies, allege that the Court misconstrued the acts of the Illinois Legislature. In their brief the petitioners say: "Only at rare intervals does a case involving such vast financial interests as the present controversy come before even the Supreme Court of the United States, and rarely, if ever, has such complete disaster resulted from one of its decisions."

WATCH THE REPORTS

If You Want to Know Which Are to Be Classified as Liquors, Look for the Reports of the Internal Revenue Department.

The commissioner of internal revenue has decided, and justly so, that some patent medicines contain sufficient alcohol to class them as liquors. This ruling has long been looked for by those who have watched conditions. To the careful observer the enormous sales achieved by some of these so-called remedies is due to some other reason than their curative properties.

Physicians and laymen conversant with the subject have long maintained that the demand for certain patent medicines was created by the taste for alcohol thus acquired, and now the United States government has taken notice of this evil. Chemical tests are now being made in the government laboratories at Washington, and those so-called remedies containing a certain percentage of alcohol cannot be sold hereafter without the druggist or dealer procuring a license for the sale of liquors.

Watch as long as you may, and you will not see the name of Magee's (Malt) Emulsion on the list. The reason is that this wonderful body builder is a FOOD, and who ever heard of food containing alcohol?

Before taking any remedy it is well to look into its ingredients. If you know that a certain preparation contained a poison, such as strychnine for instance, would you take it? Of course you wouldn't. Why then should you take a mixture, the chief ingredient of which is alcohol, a poison?

In stating the opinion of the public for Magee's (Malt) Emulsion, the proprietors offer every bit of information regarding it that there is. It is made of pure Norwegian cod liver oil, syrup, non-alcoholic diastase, malt extract, hypophosphites of lime and soda and flavored with whitegreen. Nothing else enters into its composition. This combination is a food—not a medicine. Magee's (Malt) Emulsion is for colds, coughs, pulmonary affections, weakened systems and thin-blooded people or anemics. It builds up the tissues, enriches the blood and makes fat. Alcohol destroys all this. Which will you take?

It may be procured of E. A. Brown, Druggist, 48 North Main street, Barre.

WHITEWASH COAT AGAIN

Boston Americans Shut Out By Athletics

PLANK PITCHED FINELY

Cy Young's Twirling Yielded Ten Hits, Which Couldn't Fail to Give the Game Away, in Spite of Fast Fielding.

Philadelphia, April 28.—The Athletics got back at the Collins' tribe yesterday afternoon with a 3 to 0 defeat, and Mr. Plank was the great stumbling block for the visitors. This base ball timber allowed but three scattered hits in nine innings, and with the exception of a muff by Seybold received faultless support. Young again tried his hand in the box and was touched up for ten hits, although fast fielding by Boston kept the score down low.

One of Boston's three hits was made by Stahl in the first inning but the better got no further than first base. Young straightened out one for two bases in the third and Selbach's fly was muffed by Seybold. Collins batted a line fly to Davis, and Seybold was doubled on first, closing Boston's best chance to score. Plank held them well in hand during the rest of the game, although Collins did work in a hit in the sixth inning and took second on Lord's throw-in. Stahl fouled out and Parent got a pass. But Murphy closed the inning by fouling to Godwin.

The home team commenced its scoring in the third, when Hartel got first on a feller's choice, stole second and scored on Lord's double to center field. Two hits in the fourth, a double by Murphy and a single by Cross gave an other run in that inning. The last of the three runs was made in the seventh, when Murphy beat out a bunt and was sacrificed to second by Cross, scoring when Plank singled.

DREW THE BOOBY PRIZE.

Brandon Man's Luck in the Lottery of Marriage.

Rutland, April 28.—The business of the March term of Rutland county court was concluded yesterday, an adjournment sine die being taken in the afternoon. Judge Powers gave his decision yesterday afternoon in the sensational Brandon divorce case. Edwin N. Lewis was granted a bill from Della V. O. Lewis on the ground of intolerable severity.

In giving his decision the court said: "This marriage seems to have been a reckless one. There was evidently no affection on either side. It seems that the petitioner might feel that he entered into a lottery and drew the booby prize. The case, however, must be considered on the evidence just the same as any other case. Both parties were probably at fault. It is probable that the petitioner was to blame in some respects, but there is no sufficient evidence to establish any moral misconduct on his part, nor is there anything to show that the petitioner was guilty of anything of this sort. We are convinced that the petitioner was guilty of intolerable severity in that she took occasion to beat her husband shamelessly in vile language at his place of business in the presence of others. On this evidence the bill is granted."

WARFIELD FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Boast Started by Speech on Paul Jones.

Washington, April 28.—Largely as a result of a speech made by Governor Warfield of Maryland on the occasion of the Paul Jones obsequies at Annapolis, a movement to make him the Democratic nominee for vice president has been started by a number of senators and representatives. A large number of members of Congress heard the speech and the Democrats were very much impressed by it. Governor Warfield is expected in Washington in the near future, and his boom may then take on a more definite and tangible form.
